

Ultimate Beneficial Owner (UBO) statement

Why this form?

In order to ensure that we comply with all applicable export control laws and sanction programs, we conduct a business partner due diligence review prior to entering into a business relationship with a third party.

Part of our business partner due diligence is to determine the Ultimate Beneficial Owners, abbreviated to 'UBO', and check them against the sanction lists.

Who are your UBOs?

Is your organisation a legal entity, such as an association, foundation, co-operative, mutual benefit company, public company limited by shares, private company with limited liability or a similar legal form under foreign law, then your UBO is:

- the natural person who holds a direct or indirect interest of 50% or more in the capital of your organisation; and/or
- the natural person who can, direct or indirectly, exercise 50% or more of the voting rights at the general meeting of your organisation; and/or
- the natural person who is the beneficiary of 50% or more of the assets of your organisation; and/or
- the natural person who has special control of 50% or more of the assets of your organisation. This is understood to mean that the person has a special controlling right laid down in the articles of association for instance; and/or
- the natural person who has *effective control of your organisation.

Note: if the shares in your organisation have been transferred to a Trust Foundation, the holders of the corresponding depository receipts may qualify as UBO based on the above-mentioned criteria.

Is your organisation a one-man business or unincorporated partnership, such as a general, trading, or limited partnership or a similar legal form under foreign law, then your UBO is:

- the natural person who in case of dissolution of your organisation is entitled to 50% or more of the dissolved community; and/or
- the natural person who is entitled to 50% or more of the profits of your organisation; and/or
- the natural person who can exercise 50% or more of the voting rights if decision-making in your organisation requires a majority of votes; and/or
- the natural person who has *effective control of your organisation.

Effective control* of a legal entity or unincorporated partnership is the case if a natural person:

- i. has the authority to appoint or discharge the majority of a supervisory, executive, or administrative body; and/or
- ii. has control of the majority of the voting rights; and/or
- iii. has an otherwise controlling influence on the organisation; and/or
- iv. has the power of disposal of (part of) the assets of the organisation.

Note: there has to be at least 1 person with effective control.
